There will be games, prizes, health and nutrition information, physical fitness activities and much more! For more information please call 334-264-3335 or visit our website at www.clickvic.org.
- Free Grant Writing Services
Starting in September, the Homeless Veterans Providers Technical Assistance Center of the North Carolina Governor's Institute on Alcohol and Substance Abuse is sponsoring a series of free workshops throughout the country. Funded by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), the Technical Assistance Center focuses its efforts on preparing non-profit organizations and faith-based agencies to apply for the VA Homeless Providers Grant and Per Diem (GPD) Program. The purpose of the GPD is "to promote the development and provision of supportive housing and/or appropriate supportive services, including innovative approaches to assist homeless veterans in the transition from homelessness and to enable them to live as independently as possible." Please check the website (www.homelessvetprovidertac.net) for the workshop schedule. Only online registration is available on a first come, first serve basis. In addition to the workshops, the Technical Assistance Center offers individualized review of grant applications with feedback and suggestions.
- Leadership Recruiting Services for Nonprofits
Bridgestar, an initiative of the Bridgespan Group, is a nonprofit organization providing recruiting services, content, and tools designed to help organizations build strong leadership teams and to encourage individuals to pursue career paths as nonprofit leaders. Bridgestar was founded on the premise that mission-focused nonprofit organizations have greater opportunity to achieve breakthrough results when they attract, assemble, and nurture strong board and senior leadership teams. Visit the website listed below for details on all of Bridgestar's resources.

- 1-800-Volunteer.org

1-800-Volunteer.org is a national database of volunteer opportunities powered by a volunteer management system for non-profits. Those interested in volunteering can go to www.1800volunteer.org and get registered to serve. One can use the "search tool" to discover volunteer opportunities and help in their local community or across the country. This is an excellent way for one to locate a regional Volunteer Center in Alabama or again, across the country. For more detailed information, please visit the website, www.1800volunteer.org.

- Directory of Foundation Workforce and Economic Development Grants

Organizations that focus on workforce development and job training are a significant asset to their communities. Many corporate and private foundations see the value in these community organizations reaching their neighbors and want to help. This new resource can help bridge the gap between funding and services for many community organizations. The Directory of Workforce Grant Opportunities is designed to help FBCOs navigate different funding resources that may assist them in providing workforce development and job-training services. This guide highlights funding resources that are available for FBCOs involved in workforce development, economic development, and employability training. These lists provide a detailed explanation of each grant and contact information to more easily determine eligibility. <http://www.dol.gov/cfbci/DFWGO.pdf>

- Website Connects Good People with Good Causes

VolunteerMatch believes in the power of volunteering to enrich our lives and the world around us. The organization offers a variety of online services to support a community of nonprofit, volunteer, and business leaders committed to civic engagement. VolunteerMatch welcomes millions of visitors a year and has become the preferred Internet volunteer recruiting tool for more than 50,000 nonprofit organizations. Visit the website listed below to learn more about VolunteerMatch and its services. <http://www.volunteermatch.org/>

- Fight Hunger Initiative

Is an effort to engage all citizens in the fight against hunger in communities across America. The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) created an online toolkit that offers a step-by-step guide on how to help neighbors in need, from volunteering at a food drive to planting community gardens. Secretary of Agriculture Schafer is also encouraging people to nominate an individual or organization for the Fight Hunger Initiative Award to recognize exemplary work in the fight against hunger. The toolkit includes additional resources to help you learn more about USDA food and nutrition programs. To learn more about the Fight Hunger Initiative, please visit www.usda.gov/secretary

- Faith-Based Resources

The National Criminal Justice Reference Service, in partnership with the Office of Justice Programs, has launched a new online resource for nongovernment community organizations—including faith-based ones—that provide victim services. To learn more about the resources available, visit <http://www.ncjrs.gov/faithbased/>

- New Website for NGOs Launched

The Microsoft NGO Connection website has been launched to provide nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) a place to go to learn how to use technology more effectively and to access the resources Microsoft and its partners offer. The website provides free or discounted software applications, training and certification information, and NGO discussion forums. The goal of the website is to help NGOs achieve their organizational goals more efficiently. Visit the website listed below to learn more about this new online resource. <http://www.microsoft.com/About/CorporateCitizenship/CommunityInvestment/NGO/en/us/default.aspx>

- Tracks to Success—Identifying the Right Grantmaker

Identifying the right grantmaker for any program or project is a straightforward, step-by-step process that can greatly increase your organization's chances of securing grant funding. In this series on how to do grant research, we will walk you through that process from start to finish. To read Part Two, "First Easy Steps," visit the GrantStation website. <http://www.grantstation.com/index.asp#tracks>

Note: Beginning this week, each Tracks to Success article will be available live on the GrantStation website for two weeks. We hope this change will provide readers with sufficient time to access these articles.

- Network for Good Online Fundraising Tool

The mission of Network for Good's new online Learning Center is to provide nonprofits with free access to the best available web-based fundraising and nonprofit marketing resources. The Learning Center features hundreds of articles in six areas: Online Fundraising, Social Networking, Website 101, Email 101, Donor Database, and Nonprofit Marketing. Much of the content comes from nonprofit professionals, coaches, trainers, bloggers, and consultants who are working everyday to improve fundraising and marketing effectiveness. To review the resources offered by the Learning Center, please visit <http://www.fundraising123.org/>

- YouTube Non-Profit Program

Charitable organizations can now register to upload promotional footage on a new nonprofit YouTube channel. The channel, which is free to nonprofits, will also offer a donation feature available with no processing costs through Google Checkout for Nonprofits. For more information, please see www.youtube.com/nonprofits.

- State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP)

Helping senior citizens enroll in Medicare's Prescription Drug Plan is one of the largest projects the Alabama Department of Senior Services and the Area Agencies on Aging have undertaken. Last year, the faith-based and community initiatives network assisted the State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP) counselors and volunteers at the local Area Agencies on Aging in the Medicare Part D enrollment effort. ADSS is asking for your assistance again this year to ensure our state's elderly population receives proper counseling and advice. Your help is needed to guide new seniors through enrollment and assist those already on Medicare Part D in evaluating their coverage for the coming year. Your organization can help to ensure that seniors receive the counseling they need to make an informed choice.

For more information on how to volunteer or to host an event for Medicare beneficiaries and their families, email ageline@adss.alabama.gov or call 1-800-AGE-LINE.

- Data Mapping
Program coordinators and grant writers who want to convey their communities' needs with solid facts and visual impact can use a new online, interactive resource called DataPlace. Developed and maintained by the Fannie Mae Foundation, DataPlace is a source of demographic, economic, and housing data about communities, regions, and the nation. The DataPlace mapping tool produces colorful, thematic maps. DataPlace's chart and table builder creates bar and line charts, accompanied by data tables. <http://www.dataplace.org/>

- Prisoner Reentry Initiative Grants

The President's Prisoner Re-entry Initiative (PRI) seeks to strengthen urban communities characterized by large numbers of returning prisoners through an employment-centered program that incorporates mentoring, job training, and other comprehensive transitional services. This program is a joint effort of the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Department of Labor (DOL) designed to reduce recidivism by helping inmates find work when they return to their communities. Under this new solicitation, DOL will be awarding grants to faith-based and community organizations (FBCOs) to provide post-release services to ex-prisoners in urban communities within the target counties. This competition is limited to FBCOs operating within the target county identified in each DOJ grant. Jefferson County, AL is the only county listed for the state of Alabama. Due By: Applications are due by November 4, 2008

- Services for Disabled Children Supported

The Innovating Worthy Projects Foundation provides support to nonprofit organizations throughout the United States that are dedicated to providing direct care or services for children with special needs, acute illnesses, or chronic disabilities. Preference is given to small organizations that might not otherwise be helped. Grants support new ideas and approaches to providing services as well as equipment purchases.

Requests are accepted from January 1 through August 31, annually.

Please see <http://www.iwpcf.org/> for more information.

- Christian Values Network

Christian Values Network was created to help individuals financially support their chosen ministry, church, or charity. CVN has over 125 shopping partnerships with leading online retailers offering Everyday, and, Christian products. When you purchase through this CVN community of online shopping partners – "To Buy Is To Give"™ -- CVN will typically give between 3% and 7% of your purchase to your chosen ministry, church, or charity. This means your ministry, church, or charity will be receiving 50% of CVN's net revenue. There is never a charge for your ministry, church, or charity to join the CVN program. It is also FREE for their constituents to become CVN Members. We cordially invite you to take advantage of the FREE CVN Membership, and begin helping to financially support your ministry, church, or charity.

Please go to www.cvn.org for more details.

- Grants Encourage Citizen Engagement

The mission of the Wallace Global Fund is to promote an informed and engaged citizenry, to fight injustice, and to protect the diversity of nature and the natural systems upon which all life depends. The Fund seeks to further its mission through fundamental public policy and systemic change. Proposals are reviewed in the following program areas: natural resources, women's human rights, and media. The Fund supports activities at the global and national level, and will also consider significant local or regional initiatives offering the potential to leverage broader national or global impact.

Letters of inquiry are accepted throughout the year.

For more information please go to <http://www.wgf.org/>.

- Breaking Down Divisions

The Mix It Up Grants Program, administered by the Southern Poverty Law

Center in Montgomery, provides $500 grants to youth-directed activist projects that focus on identifying, crossing, and challenging social boundaries in schools and communities. Funded projects must promote collaboration across social boundaries — different youth groups, clubs, or community groups working together. Ideally, the project should be created and implemented by youth; however, various adults and community volunteers should also be invited to participate.

Applications are accepted throughout the year.

For more information, please see

<http://www.tolerance.org/teens/grants.jsp>.

- Build-A-Bear Workshop's Bearemy's Kennel Pals Pet Program

- Grants for Meeting Basic Human Needs

The Public Welfare Foundation is dedicated to supporting nonprofit organizations that provide services to disadvantaged populations and work for lasting improvements in the delivery of services that meet basic human needs. Organizations are also supported that link their community and local work to other efforts to effect broader public policy change. The Foundation's funding priorities include community development, criminal justice, environment, health, human rights and global security, reproductive and sexual health, and youth. Strong emphasis is given to organizations that include service, advocacy, and empowerment in their approach. While most grants are made to organizations in the United States, the Foundation does provide limited support to organizations in other countries.

Letters of inquiry are reviewed throughout the year

Foundations

- Actuarial Foundation

Through its Advancing Student Achievement Mentoring Program Actuarial Foundation awards grants to schools and groups throughout the United States and Canada for programs that involve actuaries in the teaching of mathematics. The initiative brings together actuaries and educators in local classrooms (grades 4-12) with the belief that interaction with real-world mentors will boost students' interest in math. Applicants for grants will be given wide latitude in designing programs that create a "love of math" in each student. The Foundation can provide a local network of actuaries ready to participate, as well as suggestions on how to integrate math concepts from the workplace into the classroom. Applications may be submitted at any time.

For more information, please see <http://www.actuarialfoundation.org/grant/>

- Allstate Foundation

Proposals for program support must address needs within one of the three focus areas to be considered for funding: Safe and Vital Communities; Economic Empowerment; and Tolerance, Inclusion and Diversity. The Foundation has no deadlines for submission.

- The Surdna Foundation

The Surdna Foundation is interested in fostering entrepreneurial programs throughout the U.S. that offer viable solutions to difficult systemic problems. The Foundation primarily provides support to nonprofit organizations through the following four program areas. The Community Revitalization category seeks to enhance the quality of life in urban places, increase their ability to attract a diversity of residents and employers, and insure that urban policies promote social equity. The goals of the Environment category are to prevent irreversible damage to the environment and to promote environmentally beneficial and equitable use of land and natural resources. The Effective Citizenry category provides support for young people to take direct action to solve problems in their schools, neighborhoods, and the larger society. The Arts Program is a national initiative focusing on arts and education.

Letters of inquiry in most program areas are accepted throughout the year. For more information, please visit www.surdna.org.
